Political partisan interest must never be consulted. Competent and efficient officers shall not be removed to give place to those not known to have superior qualifications and experience. Character, intelligence, special adaptability to the position to be filled, either natural or acquired, industrious inclination and habit, a desire to make institutional work a business to be followed, these are pre-essentials to applicants for appointment. Special attention;should be given as to age, previous employment, references and other facts affecting their fitness for the position solicited. The Board is of the opinion that the best interest of the institution can be subserved by appointing none over forty years of age. The Warden shall have charge...
