Mr. Mayor And Fellow-citizens Of Buffalo: Before proceeding with the address which I have had the honor to prepare for this occasion, I take the liberty, on behalf of this audience, of offering our congratulations to the venerable rector of St. Pauls, that after a service in the ministry, which has lasted through the entire life of our city, his health and strength enables him to take a part in our anniversary exercises this evening, and to receive this unaffected and spontaneous tribute of the respect and affection of his fellow-citizens. On the 20th day of April, 1832, an act was passed by the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled An act to incorporate the City of Buffalo. An election was held on the 26th day of the ensuing May, of two aldermen from each of the five wards of the city,...
