Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Kansas Question: Senator Sumner s Speech; Reviewing the Action of the Federal Administration Upon the Subject of Slavery in Kansas; Delivered in the Senate of the United States, May 19th and 20th, 1856 Mr. President: You are now called to redress a great transgression. Seldom in the history of nations has such a question been presented. Tariffs, army bills, navy bills, land bills, are important, and justly occupy your care; but these all belong to the course of ordinary legislation. As means and instruments only, they are necessarily subordinate to the conservation of Government itself. Grant them or deny them, in greater or less degree, and you will inflict no shock. The machinery of Government will continue to move. The State will not cease to exist. Far otherwise is it with the eminent question now before you, involving, as it does. Liberty in a broad Territory, and also involving the peace of the whole country with our good name in history forevermore. Take down your map, sir, and you will find that the Territory...
