Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Night-Time Writings Vols 1 2 were channelled through to the author by the Father Within. The Father was his spiritual not physical father. An easier way for many people to understand if the Holy Spirit . Paul says it was a way for him to be taught about the spiritual pathway, what he should and should not do, how his attitude to others should be, how to develop love and compassion for his fellow men and women. The way that the teachings were given was remarkable. Paul did not have to think, they were dictated to him, however he said that he could feel the love and emotion coming through as they were being given to him. He struggled to keep up with getting them typed before the next batch came through. You can see from the dates that there wasn't much space in between. The way that the different topics were presented varied. There was a combination of verse and prose and topics were quite diverse. Most of them had spiritual themes of one type or another. In the majority of them Paul was being spoken to as a Teacher to his pupil. Sometimes he was being told off, but most times he was reminded of the consequences if certain things happened or if certain paths or actions occurred. The six months that the writings were received Paul went through tremendous spiritual growth as mentioned in his book, Reaching the Station . He was taught that all the answers that any person or soul requires can be found within themselves, and that it is far better to show a person how to access the healing power...
