ON THE OPINION THAT EACH SEX MAT TRANSMIT ANY CHABACTEEISTIC WHATEVER. The argument from hybrids-- This argument is inconclusive--The argument from the homology between the ovum and the male cell--Homology does not involve functional similarity--The argument from the dual personality of each individual; from reversion; and from polymorphism--These phenomena admit of a simpler explanation--Summary of chapter. The Argument from Hybrids. According to the view to be presented in this work, the functions of the two sexual elements, in inheritance, are not alike. The proof of this will be presented further on, when the subject is reached in the logical course of the development of our argument. Some of the very highest authorities have been led to a view which is directly opposite, and have held that either parent may transmit to the offspring any characteristic whatever. Lest any reader should assume, at...
