GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 28 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.1in.Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies - Culture and Applied Geography, grade: 2, 0, Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nuremberg (Lehrstuhl fr Auslandswissenschaft), course: Proseminar: Introduction to the American Political System, language: English, abstract: There is no power that has influenced international politics that much as the United States of America. Their behavior in the whole world, their initiative and achievements, but also their faults and omissions influenced the fate of almost every Nation in the whole world. 1 The United States of America are the only superpower left after the Cold War. Their power is the result of a historical development. To understand their Foreign Policy it is necessary to have a closer look at their behavior through history. As America has always been a nation of immigrants . . . and . . . started as an experience in democracy fueled by Europeans 2 the relations to other countries are multicultural and something special. The systematic divisions between the United States and Europe on world affairs thus began before 911, and even before the arrival of the Bush administration. But the terrorist attacks on New York and Washington vastly accelerated those trends and expanded the gap between the American and European approaches. Everybody has the horrible pictures of the terror-attacks of September 11th in mind and knows that this has changed the international situation more than ever before. And especially inside Germany the acting of the Unites States was not always seen to be the right thing. But as the United States of America also were the main power to built up Germany after the Second World War, I think its only fair to judge their acting not before having a closer...
