During the early decades of the 20th century, communication by postcard was an inexpensive and popular means of exchanging travel stories, news, and gossip across the United States. For just a few cents each, postcards connected friends and family separated by hundreds of miles. Rockford: 1900-World War I, with a collection of nearly 240 vintage postcard images, captures the details of this dynamic era and documents the Forest City s coming of age. Inside are views of Rockford s bustling downtown, including rare glimpses of long-gone landmarks like the Grand Opera House and Orpheum Theater. Witness history in the making with Rockford s first recorded airplane flights in 1911 and experience U.S. Army doughboy life at Rockford s Camp Grant. Be there for Teddy Roosevelt s historic visits to Rockford, and marvel at the intrepid companies that turned Rockford into a national manufacturing power.
