The broad truths of God in heaven and earth give mental freedom. (6) The truths of salvation, a new heart, the presence of the holy Spirit, imparts the new life which makes Christian action free and natural. (7) As a knowledge of natural law enables us to make that law our servant and helper, and us the masters of nature, so a knowledge of the spiritual laws makes us masters in that realm, and enables us to make all its powers our servants and helpers.--P. 33. They answered him. The answers are those that believed, not some others among the hearers. They had not yet become disciples indeed, were not yet distinct from the mass of the unbelieving; and therefore, in speaking to them, he ascribes to them the sins of their race.--Alford. We be Abraham s seed. And therefore endowed with all the privileges...
