Peace Corps Writers, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A series of vignettes of significant, often funny, sometimes quite serious, events and encounters based on James Peace Corps experience in the Philippine. As a Volunteer from October 1968 to May 1973 James was profoundly changed by the joy of life and economic inequality he discovered while serving in the Philippines. He helped introduce a new activity-based approach to science teaching, learned the truth of the children s rhyme that Planting Rice is No Fun, and taught part-time at a College. Life included buying a one-of-a-kind mosquito net, being offered a love potion, witnessing the funeral processions of poor babies, holidays, and being attacked by dogs after eating dog meat. The cloud of the Vietnam War had a significant impact. The most life-changing event almost didn t happen when Maria, the matchmaker s intended choice, accused the Peace Corps of fascism, imperialism, and neocolonialism. Renewed efforts the next year resulted in an accepted marriage proposal 6 weeks later. James then had to secure the blessings of her grandmother, Huk Kumander Dayang-dayang, for a marriage 2 weeks later. They had to wade through a waste-high flood on their wedding day and spent their honeymoon in a 350 year old Catholic convent. Maria s naturalization as a US citizen and acceptance into Peace Corps occurred during a 6 week trip to the US after which they returned as Volunteers to the Philippines.
