Excerpt: . . . begin training Mexican state and local penitentiary officers at the Xalapa academy, as well as open it to Central American penitentiary systems, in the near future. These officials also indicate that the United States has provided essential technical assistance and training to modernize the Mexican prisoner classification system, to ensure proper prisoner tracking and management. The Mrida Initiative has supported programs in Central America. Some of the programs that have been initiated in the Central American countries we visited are described below: In El Salvador, Mrida funding will enhance the Transnational Anti-Gang Initiative (TAG) by providing technical expertise and specialized equipment such as computers, software, protective gear, radios, and vehicles to law enforcement agencies. The funding will support the deployment of FBI agents not only to El Salvador but also to Guatemala and Honduras. The goal is to provide technical assistance to aggressively investigate, disrupt, and dismantle violent gangs whose activities rise to the level of criminal enterprises, and who pose the greatest transnational threat, while enhancing the capabilities...
